Kindergarteners Stem Project

Words By: Brynlee Bingham

Kindergarden Stem Project!

Kindergarten recently made a STEM (Science Technology Engineering Math) project building a cast for a broken arm. They began their project by reading a story about a little girl who was playing at the park and fell. The students had to figure out what was wrong with her arm. They noticed that the little girl had broken it, so they had to make a cast with a partner that would be stable and water proof. They used their problem solving skills to plan, design, build, test, and redesign is needed. Way to go kindergarten!

Record Snow & Reading Wonders

Read Across America

Words By: Mackynzee Vance

On March 1 - 5 our school is celebrating Read Across

America. It's a time to get out your favorite books and share with others. Your teacher might even read your favorite Dr. Seuss book. Here are some suggestions of some books, you could read Green Eggs and Ham Fox in Socks and many more by Dr. Seuss. Dr. Seuss is known for spreading joy through his fun children's books. If you are not a fan, that's ok. Join in Read Across America by sharing the book that sparked your loved of reading with others.

❄️The wonderful snow❄️

Words by: Nayeli

❄️The Winter Wonderland!❄️ February 14, 2021 (a.k.a Valentine's Day) was the first time in a long time that it snowed here in Del Rio! Wasn't it a weird coincidence that it snowed on Valentine's Day? Many people were very happy about the snow, but it gave us problems, many people lost their electricity, water, and food. Many people had to go to friend's houses or family. The snow was very deep and fun to play in. The power came back in a few days and now we all have stories to share with family and friends for years to come.❄️

❄️5 facts about snow!❄️

1. The largest snowman has been 38.04 meters.
2. Snow doesn't always appear white.
3. The most snow to fall in a day in the United States is 75.8 inches.
4. Snow has been recorded in every 50 states.
5. All snowflakes have 6 sides.
