Aida Gomez, Chief Instructional Officer, stated “The district is extremely proud and very cognizant of the work our teachers do to ensure students graduate high school with an abundance of possibilities. Having 91.6% of our students graduate under the Foundational H.S. Program with Distinguished Level Achievements is a great accomplishment and a reflection of the programs SFDR CISD continues to offer to prepare students for the future. Congratulations to the educators, students and parents on reaching this level of success.”
