The SFDRCISD Foundation was created with a vision and a specific purpose by our School Board. It was founded on the basic principles that, with the help of our community, we can have a significant impact on the education in the community that we live in and work. This includes both teachers and students. The purpose of the foundation is twofold:

1. To provide scholarships to the students in our community that exhibit leadership, drive, and the true desire to be successful as they continue their education. And,

2. To provide access to grants for the teachers in our district that want to expand their scope of instruction in and out of the classroom, as well as “think outside the box” in their methods of teaching.

The SFDRCISD Foundation wants to encourage initiative and creative thinking, as well as reward those who have the work ethic and determination that we strive to instill in all of our students and staff.

For the Love of Reading! Cougar Reading Buddies is a literacy program implemented this school year at Ruben Chavira Elementary School to help nurture a love of reading and promote effective reading strategies. Fifth grade students paired up with a first or second grade student and met with them on a consistent basis to share books. The goal of the program was to increase fluency and comprehension skills while fostering a love of reading. The fifth graders thought that they were there simply to help the younger students. What they did not realize was how much they would gain from the experience. An added bonus was that both students involved discovered a sense of accomplishment and pride. While they enjoyed reading together, they also developed a long lasting friendship.

Ruben Chavira Elementary is honored to call her part of their family. Mrs. Cardenas was honored to receive the title. It has been said, “The mediocre teacher tells, the good teacher explains, the superior teacher demonstrates, and the great teacher inspires.” It is clear that Ruben Chavira Elementary School is in the presence of greatness. Mrs. Rachel Cardenas was selected by her colleagues as the school’s “Teacher of The Year”. Mrs. Cardenas was overwhelmingly fattered with the nomination as this means that her fellow teachers believe she inspires students to become leaders and encourages those around her to do their best on a daily basis. But the flattery does not end there. After the school level, teachers compete for the title of “Elementary Teacher of The Year” as the teacher to represent the entire school district for the regional title. At the annual Teacher Appreciation Banquet at the Civic Center, Rachel was presented with the SFDRCISD Elementary Teacher of The Year award. Mrs. Cardenas was honored to receive the title. It has been said, “The mediocre teacher tells, the good teacher explains, the superior teacher demonstrates, and the great teacher inspires.” It is clear that Ruben Chavira Elementary School is in the presence of greatness. Mrs. Rachel Cardenas was selected by her colleagues as the school’s “Teacher of The Year.” Mrs. Cardenas was overwhelmingly flattered with the nomination as this means that her fellow teachers believe she inspires students to become leaders and encourages those around her to do their best on a daily basis. But the flattery does not end there. After the school level, teachers compete for the title of “Elementary Teacher of The Year” as the teacher to represent the entire school district for the regional title. At the annual Teacher Appreciation Banquet at the Civic Center, Rachel was presented with the SFDRCISD Elementary Teacher of The Year award. Mrs. Cardenas was honored to receive the title. Ruben Chavira Elementary is honored to call her part of their family.

FOR THE LOVE OF READING!

Cougar Reading Buddies is a literacy program implemented this school year at Ruben Chavira Elementary School to help nurture a love of reading and promote effective reading strategies. Fifth grade students paired up with a first or second grade student and met with them on a consistent basis to share books. The goal of the program was to increase fluency and comprehension skills while fostering a love of reading. The fifth graders thought that they were there simply to help the younger students. What they did not realize was how much they would gain from the experience. An added bonus was that both students involved discovered a sense of accomplishment and pride. While they enjoyed reading together, they also developed a long lasting friendship.

COUGARS LEAD THE WAY!

Way to lead the way, Cougars!
The Buena Vista Elementary Student Council traveled to San Antonio, TX on Friday, May 15th 2015. The students were amazed to visit The Tower of the Americas, The Institute of Texan Cultures, Ripley’s Believe It or Not Oddities Museum, and the Ripley’s Wax Museum. It was a wonderful learning experience for BV students. At The Institute of Texan Cultures, students learned of the rich cultural tapestry that makes this state what it is today. Students were able to see the long-term and rotating exhibits that present stories of Texans past and present, with an emphasis on the heritage of the many different peoples who chose to make Texas their home. Artifacts, both on exhibit and those in the collection, provided students with tangible links to these stories.

During the fifth six weeks, our life skills students learned about how plants “drink” water through their stems. We placed white carnations in differently colored water. After 1 day, the evidence of water delivered to the flower was quite evident. Pictured with some of our results are (from left to right) Miguel Aguero, James and Jesse Trujillo.

Mrs. Trisler’s Life Skills class at North Heights studied directions such as left, right, near, far, here, there, up and down. Students studied the map to see where it would lead.

The SFDRCISD Foundation was created with a vision and a specific purpose by our School Board. It was founded on the basic principles that, with the help of our community, we can have a significant impact on the education in the community that we live in and work. This includes both teachers and students. The purpose of the foundation is twofold:

1. To provide scholarships to the students in our community that exhibit leadership, drive, and the true desire to be successful as they continue their education. And,

2. To provide access to grants for the teachers in our district that want to expand their scope of instruction in and out of the classroom, as well as “think outside the box” in their methods of teaching.

The SFDRCISD Foundation wants to encourage initiative and creative thinking, as well as reward those who have the work ethic and determination that we strive to instill in all of our students and staff.
