San Felipe Del Rio CISD Expresses Continued Appreciation for Community and Business Support

Del Rio, Texas, April 15, 2024 - San Felipe Del Rio Consolidated Independent School District (SFDR-CISD) reaffirms its heartfelt gratitude to the remarkable individuals and businesses in our community for their ongoing support and generosity.

As dedicated stewards of education, we remain deeply appreciative of the overwhelming kindness demonstrated by our community members and local businesses. Their unwavering commitment to our students' success continues to be a driving force behind the excellence in education we strive to provide.

Through both financial contributions and non-monetary assistance, our supporters play an indispensable role in enhancing educational opportunities and enriching the lives of our students. Whether through monetary donations, in-kind contributions, volunteer efforts, or collaborative partnerships, each gesture leaves a lasting impact on our schools and students.

From funding crucial programs and initiatives to providing essential resources and supplies, every contribution helps create a nurturing and enriching learning environment within our district.

The collective generosity of our community members and businesses underscores the spirit of unity and compassion that defines San Felipe Del Rio CISD. Together, we are making significant strides in empowering our students to achieve their fullest potential.

SFDR-CISD extends heartfelt thanks to all individuals and businesses who have contributed to our mission of providing exceptional education for every student. Your support is invaluable, and we are profoundly grateful for your continued partnership.
