Winner of the 3rd grade Shop Palooza! Oral Readers Become a Theater Club!

Words by 3rd grade Fiction Fandom

Due to the Corona Virus Pandemic RBB Stem Magnet school can not have competition between districts, so the amazing teacher Mrs. Nguyen provided her students in the oral reading room with two options: the students could either do competition within the school, or to turn it into a theater club. Students decided to have a vote to see majority opinion. All of the students were going to burst with excitement and joy. The coach of the UIL, Mrs. Nguyen, quietly counted up the final votes. "And the winner is... The theater club!" Everyone was so happy that they were going to be in a theater club! They couldn't wait to do a performance sometime soon, so that they can act their hearts out. After the vote, it was time to pick a name for the club. All the students gathered up in grade levels to think of some names, then we voted. The last two names standing were The Falcon Theater or The Actor-Vaders. Again the teacher Mrs. Nguyen counted up the final votes. It was final. They're now called the

Black History Month

A Biography of Black History

Words by 3rd grade Fiction Fandom

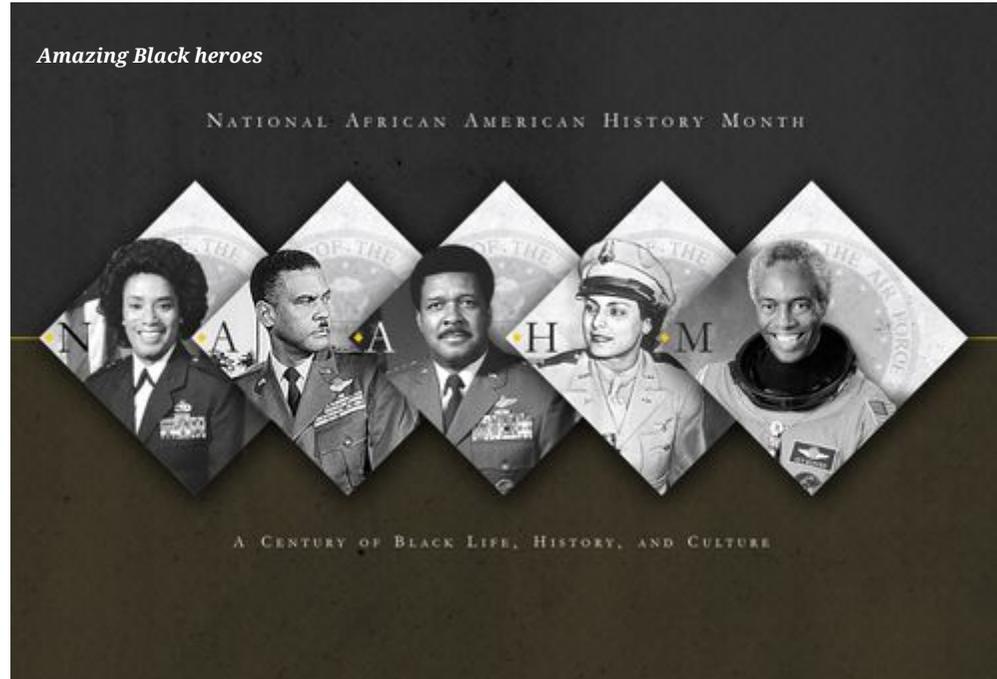

February is the month that we honor African Americans that helped to change the world. So many black people have died trying to right the wrongs of the world.

One of these amazing heroes was Harriet Tubman. She helped free hundreds of slaves, and led them to freedom. After all of her family and friends were safe in the free states she came back for more. Later she served as a nurse, and a spy in the Civil War. After the Civil War, slavery was outlawed. She died on March 10, 1913, around the age of 90.

Another one of these historical figures was Ruby Bridges. She was an American wonder. She was integrated into a white school at the age of 6 years old. Because most of the parents of the students were against the integration of the school, U.S Marshals had to escort little Ruby to, within, and out of the school. Although she was shown hatred by many, she always wanted to keep learning. She is alive and 50 years old today.

These people and many more have changed history forever and ever for black lives. To learn more go to ASALH | The Founders of
