

fac/fact/fect/fic
make/do artificial = man made artifact = an ancient item made by humans affection = a tender feeling feal/feder/fid/fide trust/faith fealty = loyalty to a person or group federal = relating to the central government perfidious = not able to be trusted fer bear/yield confer = discuss something to make a decision fertile = able to make babies, vegetables, ideas infer = reach a conclusion after reviewing facts fin/finis end

ad infinitum = without end (Prefix "in" means not.) finalist = a competitor in the final competition finite = having limits (We have a finite sum of money. If we spend it all, we won't have any left.) fix fix/attach affix = to attach something to something else fixate = to focus on something prefix = to add a letter or more before a word flect/flex bend/curve

flexuous = having curves genuflect = to kneel especially for prayers deflect = to cause something moving to change direction form shape conform = to be similar; to obey uniform = always staying the same; clothes worn by all the people in a group formless = without shape gen/genus race/kind/species/birth homogenous = of the same kind (They were homogeneous; they had similar ideas, clothes, backgrounds, etc.) progeny = the offspring/children of a person, animal, or plant grad/gred/gress

step congress = institution where lawmakers step together gradual = moving slowly, step by step graduation = successful completion of a program grat/gre thanks/pleasing agreement = sharing the same opinion gratification = reward grateful = feeling thankful cent 100 centenarian = a person at least 100 years old century = 100 years centimeter = one hundredth of a meter medi middle intermediate = the middle state between two things medium = in the middle of two extremes mediator = someone in the middle who tries to resolve a conflict between two people prim first primary = first rank; the most important primeval = ancient primordial = ancient; existing from the beginning of time mob/mot/mov

move immobile = not moving motivate = to move a person into doing something motorcycle = a two-wheeled vehicle that moves solv loosen dissolve = separate into different parts; end solvent = dissolves another substances (Water is a solvent; it dissolves sugar and salt.) resolve = find a solution for a problem vid/vis see vision = sense of sight invisible = something that cannot be seen evidence = to show something is true flu/fluc/fluv/flux

flow affluent = wealthy fluctuate = to frequently change level fluency = the ability to easily do something greg crowd/group/flock/herd congregate = come together in a group segregate = to separate from the group gregarious = enjoying the company of people jud/judi/judic

judge adjudicate = to make an official decision on who is right in a dispute prejudice = disliking a person because of his race, religion, etc. judicial = relating to the law or judge mater/matr mother alma mater = the school or university that someone attends and graduates from maternal = relating to a mother maternity = the state of being a mother jur/jus law/right abjure = formally reject a religion or country jurist = a person who is an expert at the law justify = to give a good reason for something leg law illegal = not following the law legislature = elected people who make laws legalize = to make something follow the law lit/liter/litera letters alliteration = words that start with the same consonant sound obliterate = to completely destroy something literator = a member of the literati; a well educated person lec/lect/lig choose/pick/read/speak lecture = an educational speech legend = a story passed down for generations legible = clear enough to be read loc/loqu speak/talk/say eloquent = expressing oneself clearly/effectively colloquial = speaking in an informal way (Y'all.) interlocution = conversation magniloquence = excessive use of verbal ornamentation soliloquy = speaking one's thoughts aloud magna/magni

great

magnanimous = a generous and kind nature magnify = make larger/greater magnificent = beautiful, impressive, great mit/miss

send admit = to send people in dismiss = to send someone out transmit = to send something across places patr/pater

father paternal = relating to the father expatriate = a person who leaves his country and lives abroad patron = a person who supports a cause repatriation = the act of returning to one's country pend/pens hang/weigh appendage = a part connected to a larger body expense = money needed to buy an item pending = during; while waiting for something pensive = thoughtfully weighing an issue put think compute = calculate dispute = argue; quarrel impute = accuse

rect/recti/reg

straight/right incorrigible = cannot be corrected rectilinear = formed by straight lines rectify = to make something right rupt

break/burst abrupt = sudden rupture = a crack or break in something corrupt = to cause someone to become dishonest