San Felipe Del Rio CISD Expresses Ongoing Gratitude to Community and Business Supporters

Del Rio, Texas, May 20, 2024 - The San Felipe Del Rio Consolidated Independent School District (SFDR-CISD) wishes to extend its deepest gratitude to the community members and businesses whose unwavering support continues to play a critical role in our educational mission.

As dedicated educators and administrators, we are continuously moved by the generous spirit exhibited by our community. This support has proven fundamental to advancing our commitment to educational excellence, benefiting our students immensely.

Our community's contributions, ranging from financial donations to in-kind gifts and volunteer services, are vital. They enhance educational experiences and significantly impact our students' growth and success. Each contribution, no matter its form, is integral to fostering a nurturing educational environment that benefits all.

The support we receive fuels crucial educational programs and provides the necessary resources that our schools require to thrive. This collective effort not only strengthens our educational offerings but also reinforces the sense of unity and compassion within our community.

SFDR-CISD is profoundly grateful to each individual and business that has partnered with us in our endeavor to offer outstanding educational opportunities. Your continued support is essential, and we cherish your partnership deeply.
